EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service-member during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness*; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.*

Benefits and Pr

During FMLA
coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions
, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit

Eligibility Requir

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months*, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions
s job, or prevents the qualified family member from

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when
. Employees must make reasonable ef leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the s operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and s normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee' leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; and
- made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enfor

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement

5. Date of anticipated return to work: _____
6. Are you requesting leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule? ☐ Yes ☐ No
   If yes, please give schedule or when you anticipate you will be unavailable for work.

I understand that I must provide 30 days' advance notice for requesting FMLA leave when the leave is foreseeable.
I also understand that a Certification of Health Care Provider Form (Attachment C)/Certification of Qualifying Exigency For Military Family Leave Form (WH-384)/ Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of a Current Servicemember for Military Family Leave Form (WH-385)/Certification for Serious Injury or Illness of a Veteran for Military Caregiver Leave (WH-385-V) must be completed by my health care professional and returned within 15 days after I notify you of this leave. I understand that my leave may be delayed until I provide such certification from a physician. I understand that falsification of any document or failure to produce required certifications relating to leave will result in discipline, up to and including termination.
If my request for leave falls under 3e above, I understand a copy of the active duty orders or other documentation from the military certifying the covered military member is on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call to active duty) should be submitted within 15 days after I notify you of this leave by completing the Qualifying Exigency For Military Family Leave Form (WH-384).
I hereby agree that while I am on leave I will continue to pay my portion of dependent health insurance premiums and voluntary benefit premiums unless I elect to discontinue such coverage. I also agree that if I fail to return to work at the end of the leave period, I will reimburse Jefferson County for the cost of health benefits provided by Jefferson County during my leave, unless I fail to return to work because of the continuation, recurrence or onset of a serious health condition or because of other circumstances beyond my control. If I am unable to return to work because of a serious health condition, I will provide medical certification from the appropriate health care provider stating that I am unable to perform the functions of my position on the date that my leave expired or that I was needed to care for a covered relation because he/she has a serious health condition on the date that my leave expired. Employees seeking to return to work after a leave because of their own serious illness (3.d) must furnish to the County a return-to-work release from the attending physician before being allowed to resume work.
I understand I will be required to use all available paid leave in the following order; sick leave; compensatory time; vacation; and personal leave, prior to being eligible for unpaid leave. All forms of paid leaves used run concurrently with FMLA leave.

Date: _____

To: _____ SS# _____
(Employee's Name)

Subject: Designation of Family/Medical Leave

On _____, you notified us/we became aware of your need to take family/medical leave due to:
(date)

- o a. the birth of a child, or the placement of a child for adoption or foster care; or
- o b. a serious health condition that you need to care for; or
- o c. a serious health condition affecting your o spouse, o child, o parent for which you are needed to provide care; or
- o d. because of a qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that your o spouse, o son or daughter, or o parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status with the Armed Forces; or
- o e. because you are the o spouse, o son or daughter, o parent, o next of kin of a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness.

This leave o will begin o began on or about _____ and you expect the leave to continue until on or about _____.

You have a right under the FMLA for up to 12 workweeks of unpaid leave in a rolling 12-month period (unless you have paid leave available to you) for the reasons listed above (under a, b, c, and d).

For a serious injury or illness of a covered servicemember (military caregiver leave) you have a right under the FMLA for up to 26 workweeks of unpaid leave in a 12-month period (unless you have paid leave available to you) for the reason listed above under e. For an eligible employee with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on covered active duty as an active duty servicemember or call to covered active duty status Armed Forces you may use the 12 workweek leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies.

Also, your health benefits must be maintained during any period of unpaid leave under the same conditions as if you continued to work, and you must be reinstated to the same or an equivalent job with the same pay, benefits, and terms and conditions of employment on your return from leave. If you do not return to work following FMLA leave for a reason other than: (1) the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition which would entitle you to FMLA leave; or (2) other circumstances beyond your control, you may be required to reimburse us for our share of health insurance premiums paid on your behalf during your FMLA leave.

This is to inform you that (check appropriate boxes; explain where indicated):

1. You are o eligible o not eligible for leave under the FMLA.

2. The requested leave o will o will not be counted against your annual FMLA leave entitlement.

3. You are required to furnish medical certification of a serious health condition and you must furnish this certification within 15 days after you are notified of this requirement or we may delay the commencement of your leave until the certification is submitted. If sufficient information is not provided in a timely manner, your leave may be denied.

4. In accordance with County policy, any useable accrued paid leave must be used first, in the following order during the 12 workweek or 26 workweek leave period to care for an injured or ill servicemember: 1) sick leave, 2) compensatory time, 3) vacation or 4) personal leave, where applicable. An employee who is taking leave for the adoption or foster care of a child or military FMLA leave for a qualifying exigency must use all paid compensatory time, vacation and personal leave prior to being eligible for unpaid leave. Once any paid leave is used up, the remainder of the 12 workweeks will be unpaid.

5. If you normally pay a portion of the premiums for your dependent's health/dental insurance, and/or other optional benefits, these payments must continue during the period of FMLA leave. Your premium payments are due on regularly scheduled County paydays.

6. You will be required to present a fitness-for-duty certificate prior to being restored to employment. If such certification is not received, your return to work may be delayed until such certification is provided.

7. You are required to furnish us with periodic reports of your status and intent to return to work every 30 days while on FMLA leave.

8. You are required to furnish recertification every six (6) months in relation to a serious health condition.

9. Failure to comply with any of the above conditions may result in disciplinary action.

The above information has been reviewed with me and I agree to comply with the provisions herein.

Notice to the EMPLOYER

INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYER: The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that an employer may require an employee seeking FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a current servicemember to submit a certification providing sufficient facts to support the request for leave. Your response is voluntary. While you are not required to use this form, you may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the FMLA regulations, 29 CFR 825.310. Employers must generally maintain records and documents relating to medical certifications, recertifications, or medical histories of employees or employees' family members created for FMLA purposes as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files and in accordance with 29 CFR 1630.14(c)(1), if the Americans with Disabilities Act applies, and in accordance with 29 CFR 1635.9, if the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act applies.

SECTION I: For Completion by the EMPLOYEE and/or the CURRENT SERVICEMEMBER for whom the Employee Is Requesting Leave

INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYEE or CURRENT SERVICEMEMBER: Please complete Section I before having Section II completed. The FMLA permits an employer to require that an employee submit a timely, complete, and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a servicemember. If requested by the employer, your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of FMLA-protected leave. 29 U.S.C. 2613, 2614(c)(3). Failure to do so may result in a denial of an employee's FMLA request. 29 CFR 825.310(f). The employer must give an employee at least 15 calendar days to return this form to the employer.

SECTION II: For Completion by a UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE ("DOD") HEALTH CARE PROVIDER or a HEALTH CARE PROVIDER who is either: (1) a United States Department of Veterans Affairs ("VA") health care provider; (2) a DOD TRICARE network authorized private health care provider; (3) a DOD non-network TRICARE authorized private health care provider; or (4) a health care provider as defined in 29 CFR 825.125

INSTRUCTIONS to the HEALTH CARE PROVIDER: The employee listed on Page 2 has requested leave under the FMLA to care for a family member who is a current member of the Regular Armed Forces, the National Guard, or the Reserves who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness. For purposes of FMLA leave, a serious injury or illness is one that was incurred in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces or that existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform the duties of his or her office, grade, rank, or rating.

A complete and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to a current servicemember's serious injury or illness includes written documentation confirming that the servicemember's injury or illness was incurred in the line of duty on active duty or if not, that the current servicemember's injury or illness existed before the beginning of the servicemember's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces, and that the current servicemember is undergoing treatment for such injury or illness by a health care provider listed above. Answer, fully and completely, all applicable parts. Several questions seek a response as to the frequency or duration of a condition, treatment, etc. Your answer should be your best estimate based upon your medical knowledge, experience, and examination of the patient. Be as specific as you can; terms such as "lifetime," "unknown," or "indeterminate" may not be sufficient to determine FMLA coverage. Limit your responses to the servicemember's condition for which the employee is seeking leave. Do not provide information about genetic tests, as defined in 29 CFR 1635.3(f), or genetic services, as defined in 29 CFR 1635.3(e).

Notice to the EMPLOYER

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that an employer may require an employee seeking military caregiver leave under the FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered veteran to submit a certification providing sufficient facts to support the request for leave. Your response is voluntary. While you are not required to use this form, you may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the FMLA regulations, 29 CFR 825.310. Employers must generally maintain records and documents relating to medical certifications, recertifications, or medical histories of employees or employees' family members, created for FMLA purposes as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files and in accordance with 29 CFR 1630.14(c)(1), if the Americans with Disabilities Act applies, and in accordance with 29 CFR 1635.9, if the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act applies.

SECTION I: For completion by the EMPLOYEE and/or the VETERAN for whom the employee is requesting leave

INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYEE and/or VETERAN: Please complete Section I before having Section II completed. The FMLA permits an employer to require that an employee submit a timely, complete, and sufficient certification to support a request for military caregiver leave under the FMLA leave due to a serious injury or illness of a covered veteran. If requested by the employer, your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of FMLA-protected leave. 29 U.S.C. 2613, 2614(c)(3). Failure to do so may result in a denial of an employee's FMLA request. 29 CFR 825.310(f). The employer must give an employee at least 15 calendar days to return this form to the employer.

SECTION II: For completion by: (1) a United States Department of Defense ("DOD") health care provider; (2) a United States Department of Veterans Affairs ("VA") health care provider; (3) a DOD TRICARE network authorized private health care provider; (4) a DOD non-network TRICARE authorized private health care provider; or (5) a health care provider as defined in 29 CFR 825.125.

INSTRUCTIONS to the HEALTH CARE PROVIDER: The employee named in Section I has requested leave under the military caregiver leave provision of the FMLA to care for a family member who is a veteran. For purposes of FMLA military caregiver leave, a serious injury or illness means an injury or illness incurred by the servicemember in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (or that existed before the beginning of the servicemember's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces) and manifested itself before or after the servicemember became a veteran, and is:

(i) a continuation of a serious injury or illness that was incurred or aggravated when the covered veteran was a member of the Armed Forces and rendered the servicemember unable to perform the duties of the servicemember's office, grade, rank, or rating; or
(ii) a physical or mental condition for which the covered veteran has received a U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Service Related Disability Rating (VASRD) of 50 percent or greater, and such VASRD rating is based, in whole or in part, on the condition precipitating the need for military caregiver leave; or
(iii) a physical or mental condition that substantially impairs the covered veteran's ability to secure or follow a substantially gainful occupation by reason of a disability or disabilities related to military service, or would do so absent treatment; or
(iv) an injury, including a psychological injury, on the basis of which the covered veteran has been enrolled in the Department of Veterans' Affairs Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers.

A complete and sufficient certification to support a request for FMLA military caregiver leave due to a covered veteran's serious injury or illness includes written documentation confirming that the veteran's injury or illness was incurred in the line of duty on active duty or existed before the beginning of the veteran's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty, and that the veteran is undergoing treatment, recuperation, or therapy for such injury or illness by a health care provider listed above. Answer fully and completely all applicable parts. Several questions seek a response as to the frequency or duration of a condition, treatment, etc. Your answer should be your best estimate based upon your medical knowledge, experience, and examination of the patient. Be as specific as you can; terms such as "lifetime," "unknown," or "indeterminate" may not be sufficient to determine FMLA military caregiver leave coverage. Limit your responses to the veteran's condition for which the employee is seeking leave. Do not provide information about genetic tests, as defined in 29 CFR 1635.3(f), or genetic services, as defined in 29 CFR 1635.3(e).

(Please ensure that Section I has been completed before completing this section. Please be sure to sign the form on the last page and return this form to the employee requesting leave (See Section I, Part A above). DO NOT SEND THE COMPLETED FORM TO THE WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION.)
