THE COURT: Okay. We're going to call this meeting of Jefferson County bail bond board to order. I believe that the first item on the agenda is reviewing the minutes from the last meeting. We had -- Mrs. Parks was out; and we had a substitute court reporter. I don't believe she's completed it; but it will be complete before the next meeting. If anyone needs to look at it, we'll have it on the website.

The next item on the agenda is the report from the district attorney. Any comments, Mr. Maness?

TOM MANESS: Just so complimentary of the --

1 we all know it's great clerks that do this, district and
2 county; but I'm looking now at the yearly total; boy,
3 that's wonderful, nearly a quarter of a million dollars;
4 and that's strictly from their hard work; and I
5 compliment all the ladies. You-all doing great. Good
6 work.

7 THE COURT: Well, the only comment I have, I
8 have been telling Ms. Garcia on a regular basis, every
9 one of those cases is handled by either myself or Judge
10 Davis; but they're all filed in judge -- they're all
11 given credit to Judge Gerson; but --

12 BECKY GARCIA: We're fixing to go live in 13 two weeks.

14 JUDGE FLORES: Ma'am?

15 BECKY GARCIA: In two weeks we're going to
16 go live with our new program. You'll get credit --

17 TOM MANES: We need to change the computer
18 because other judges -- why is that --

19 BECKY GARCIA: Because it's civil.

20 THE COURT: Because it's civil in nature.

21 BECKY GARCIA: It's filed as a civil nature.

22 THE COURT: We have civil jurisdiction; but
23 for the last --

24 TOM MANESS: Yeah.

25 BECKY GARCIA: It is.

1 JUDGE FLORES: That's thousands of cases
2 that Judge Gerson got credit for that Davis and I have
3 done.

4 TOM MANESS: Well, I bet he wasn't griping.

5 BECKY GARCIA: For two years, Rick and I
6 have been working with our MIS department to rewrite a
7 program that will now we can determine if it came from
8 Court 2 or Court 3; so -- next month, in January they 9 should be getting credit for some.

10 THE COURT: That just gives us more cases.

11 TOM MANESS: That's right. You're already
12 about the top in the state with your load; I don't know
13 why you'd want more.

14 THE COURT: Number 7 in the state out of 15 254.

16 TOM MANESS: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Mrs. Presley, any new
18 applications for consideration?

19 CATHERINE PRESLEY: No, sir.

20 THE COURT: Okay, Mrs. Godina, any
21 complaints?

22 MARY GODINA: No, sir.

23 THE COURT: Report from the treasurer's
24 office, Mr. Funchess?

25 TIM FUNCHESS: The treasurer's report is in

1 front of you-all, if you have any questions. Sent
2 letters out 1st of November for those folks who have
3 pledged collateral in the form of real property. I've
4 gotten tax statements from all but three of those. So,
5 I'm going to get with Mr. Day and see if he can send an
6 e-mail out to these other three people.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Report from the auditor's
8 office?

9 RHONDA BRODE: I've handed out the report to
10 everyone. There's nothing extra in there.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Is there any
12 new business to be considered?

13 (No response.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, if there's nothing
15 further then, Judge Lively?

16 JUDGE LIVELY: Motion to adjourn.

17 BECKY GARCIA: Second.

18 Tom MANESS: Second, third, fourth, and 19 fifth.

20 THE COURT: All in favor signify by saying
21 aye.
