Article 45.057(h), Code of Criminal Procedure – A child and or parent required to appear before the court has an obligation to provide the court in writing with the current address and residence of the child and or parent. The obligation does not end when the child reaches age 17. On or before the seventh day after the date the child or parent changes residence, the child or parent shall notify the court of the current address in the manner directed by the court. A violation of this subsection may result in arrest and is a Class C misdemeanor. The obligation to provide terminates on discharge and satisfaction of the judgment or final disposition not requiring a finding of guilt.

If you have a change of address, please notify the court in writing of your new address. No address notifications are permitted by telephone. Failure to provide notice will result in an additional charge of Violation to Inform Court of Parent/Child's Address.

ALL FINES, FEES, and COURT COSTS ARE DUE AT THE TIME OF SENTENCING OR PLEADING PER STATE OF TEXAS, SENATE BILL 1863 & OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION
