

Instructions: The Servicemembers Civil Relief Act applies to a civil proceeding in the Justice Courts. Before entering a default judgment against an individual defendant, the plaintiff must file with the court an affidavit stating whether or not the defendant is in the military service, showing necessary facts to support the affidavit, or stating that the plaintiff is unable to determine whether or not the defendant is in military perjury. If it appears that the defendant is in military service, the court may not enter a judgment until after the court appoints an attorney to an amount approved by the court.

A person who makes or uses an affidavit under this Act knowing it to be false, may be fined or imprisoned or both 50 U.S.C. App. 501 et seq. <https://scra.dmdc.osd.mil/scra>. This website will provide the current active military status of an individual.
