

CHAIRMAN'S LETTER

Dear Members,

We are living in a world 115 years after the Spindletop oilfield discovery which our ancestors would scarcely recognize. The impact of the development of the oil industry on modern life cannot be overestimated, and our county has been at the forefront of this development since the beginning. How many times has necessity been the mother of invention in developing new technologies in the oil industry, and how many ways have those new technologies impacted other industries? The Spindletop pioneers could not have imagined earning such a place in history, yet they did.

Thank you to our members for your time and service in preserving our history.

JEFFERSON COUNTY COURTHOUSE RESTORATION NEWS

The Jefferson County Commissioner's Court on December 7, 2015, authorized Change Order No. 1 for Jefferson County Courthouse Mechanical and Safety Upgrades with N & T Construction Company, Inc. for an increase of $437,000 for carpentry restoration services for the Jefferson County Commissioner's and District Courtrooms. The additional work specified in the change order is to be performed within 150 working days.

Live termites and spiders were found on Tuesday, January 5, 2016. Before work could be continued, pest control was sent to spray. Flooring where the Commissioners and County Judge sit while the Court is in session had to be removed down to the sub-floor. More damage than originally expected has been found.

SPINDLETOP'S 115TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION AND DRILLERS REUNION

On Saturday, January 9, 2016, Gladys City Boomtown Museum celebrated the 115th anniversary of the Spindletop oil gusher with assistance from the Big Thicket Outlaws re-enactors. JCHC members Mike McGreevy and Don Smart, along with his wife, Darlene Mott-Smart, dressed in period dress and contributed to the fun activities illustrating life in an oilfield boomtown, such as the hoot-out, Fashion Show, and Tea-Time with the Ladies Temperance Union. Also in attendance were JCHC members Steven Lewis, Theresa Goodness and Bruce Hamilton.

Despite of the cold, the event was a great success, culminating in the gusher blowing in at 4:00 p.m.

On January 13, 2016, Beaumont Main Street held its annual meeting at the Event Centre in downtown Beaumont. In addition to recognizing members who have supported the preservation of downtown Beaumont for five, ten and twenty years, a special presentation was given by Chris Fisher, Director of the Port of Beaumont, regarding the port's 100 year history and influence on downtown. The presentation included a number of beautiful historic photographs of the port dating back as far as 1915. Several photos featured the Jefferson County Courthouse due to its proximity to the port, and one in particular showed the 1931 courthouse during construction with the scaffolding in place.

The Port of Beaumont has brought significant economic development and jobs to our area over the course of a century, and will continue to do so. According to Chris Fisher, an estimated one billion dollars in expansion and development dollars is planned for the port in the next decade.

Mayor Becky Ames congratulated the Port of Beaumont on celebrating its 100 years of commerce. Also the Mayor briefly described downtown Beaumont projects under discussion by City Council. These projects include relocating the Best Years Center to downtown adjacent to the Event Centre and relocating railroad tracks to allow for Riverfront Park improvements.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL

Recently the Beaumont Enterprise ran an article entitled "Old Spanish Trail stands test of time" by Doug Begley and Brandon K. Scott.

According to the Handbook of Texas, the Old Spanish trail was a national highway, completed in the 1920's that ran from St. Augustine, Florida, to San Diego, California. The name was chosen by an organization called Old Spanish Trail Association formed in December, 1915, to promote construction of a southern transcontinental highway.

The highway does not necessarily follow trails previously part of the Old San Antonio Road and sometimes called the Old Spanish Trail, but it may follow the Opelousas Road, an east-west trail through southwestern Louisiana and southeastern Texas.
