ACTION ITEMS:

Certified Local Government (CLG) – Theresa Goodness

3. Review the findings of the draft historic resources survey.
4. Discuss, consider, and receive public input on the draft historic resources survey and incorporate any public comments.
5. Set priorities for the County Certified Local Government (CLG) and County Historical Commission (CHC) for the next 5-10 years, such as:
 - o Creating a publicly accessible system for sharing and updating survey data.
 - o Selecting areas for follow-up survey recommended by the windshield survey (such as intensive-level survey and research).
 - o Listing resources in the National Register as recommended by the survey.
 - o Planning and implementing educational programs and partnerships with other advocacy groups.
 - o Considering other ways that the County might incentivize and/or promote preservation.
6. Discuss, consider, and possibly approve payment from budgeted funds for the Texas Historical Commission (THC) application fee of $100 for a subject marker for George O'Brien Millard, and also the marker fee of $2300 if said application is approved by THC.
