Preface

Calvary Cemetery, 25th Street and Nineth Avenue, Port Arthur¹ was established in 1917 by the Rev. A. G. Grattan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, at that time the only parish church in Port Arthur. Originally in the country and reached only by the inter-urban, it is now in a commercial area.

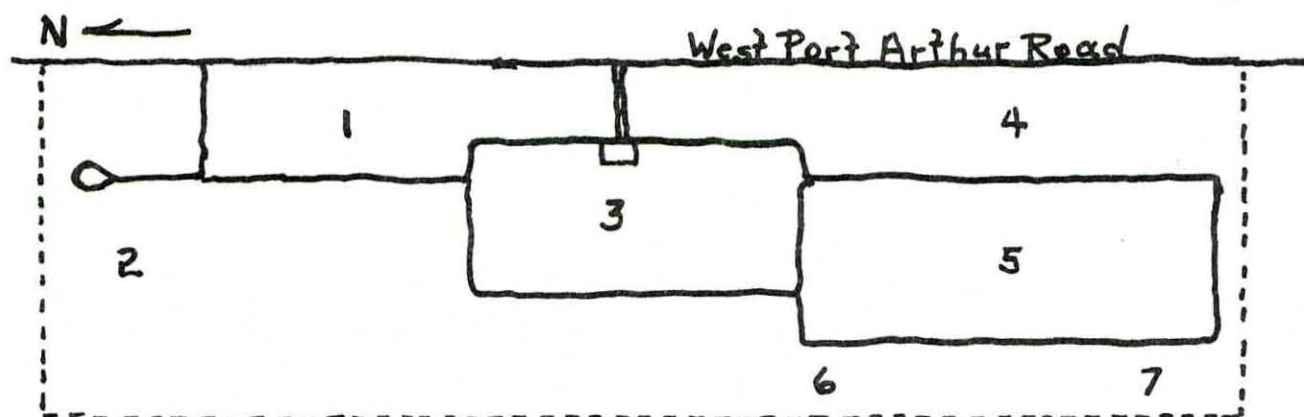

Many of the city's early leaders are buried in the old cemetery. The names inscribed reflect the melting pot that is Port Arthur Spanish, Italian, French, English, Irish and now Viet Nameese.

The cemetery was allowed to run down. On All Soul's Day, 1978, Monsignor George Rabroker, pastor of St. Catherine's Catholic Church lead a drive to restore the property. At the time of making the inventory reflected here, the property was in excellent condition. However, many graves are unidentified and persons who know of such burials are cordially invited to communicate with St. Catherine's Catholic Church, 3706 Woodrow, Port Arthur, Texas 77640.

Memory Gardens is a relatively new cemetery, created to serve the growing mid-county area. It is a part of Forest Lawn Memorial Park, 4955 Pine, Beaumont, Texas 77703.

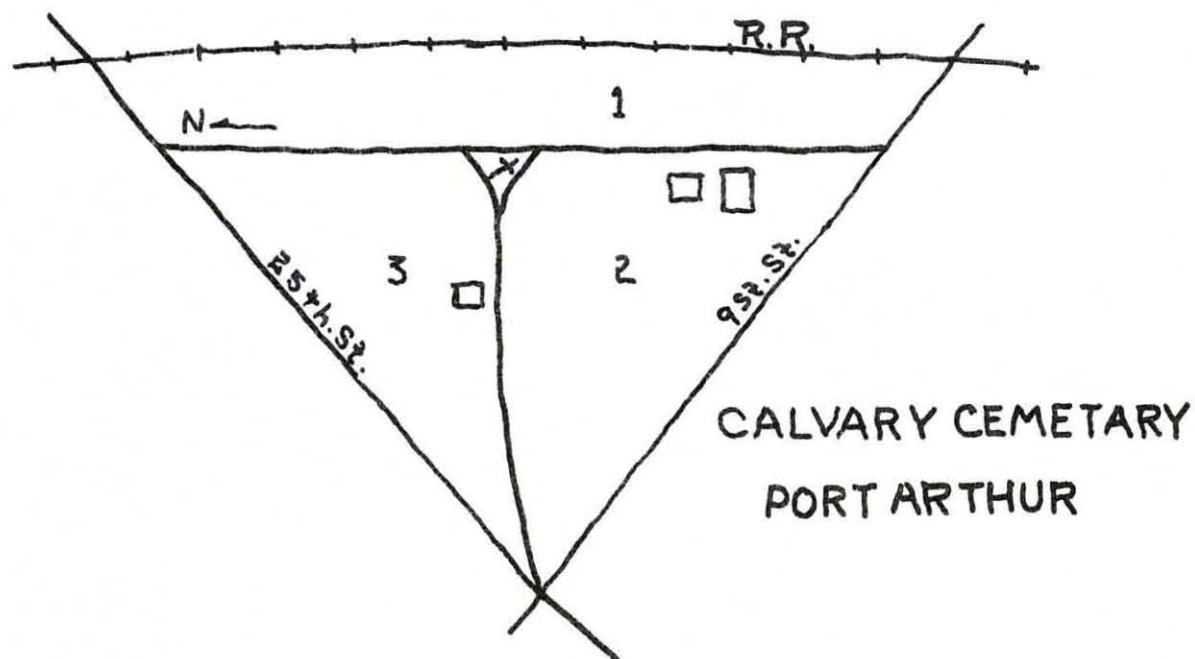

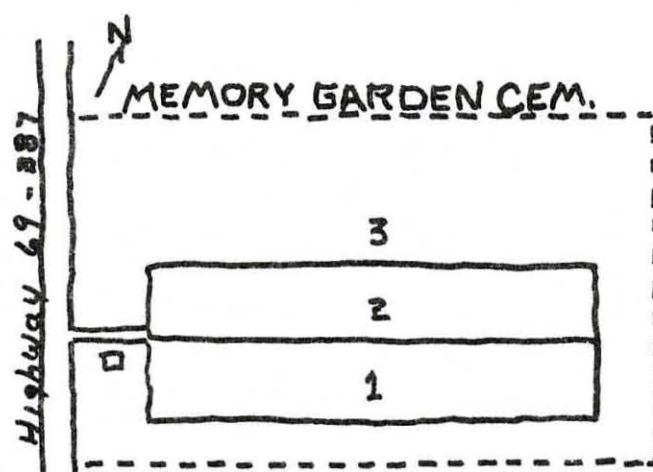

Live Oak Memorial Park Cemetery is an old cemetery serving the Black population of mid county. Their address is 1112 Boston Avenue, Nederland, Texas 77627.
