

Mediation and Conflict Resolution Help

Jefferson County provides low-cost mediation as a way to settle disputes quickly and peacefully. Through mediation citizens can avoid costly litigation and diffuse conflicts quickly and peacefully before they get out of hand. The Dispute Resolution Center of Jefferson County is the county department that provides these important services. Many kinds of conflicts can resolved with mediation: family issues, neighborhood disputes, consumer complaints, employment problems, contract disputes, property damage and a host of other issues.

To learn more about how mediation works and find the forms to get help visit the DRC website at www.co.jefferson.tx.us/med_cntr/med.htm or call (409)835-8747.